UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

Nos. 23-3072, 23-3073, 23-3076 & 23-3077

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Appellee,

 $\mathbf{v}$ .

DARIN MOORE, GABRIEL BROWN, JOHN SWEENEY & JAMES TAYLOR Appellants.

CONSENT MOTION TO MODIFY BRIEFING SCHEDULE AND EXTEND THE TIME TO FILE THE OPENING BRIEF AND APPENDIX

Appellants Darin C. Moore, Jr. (23-3072), Gabriel Brown (23-3073), John Sweeney (23-3076) and James Taylor (23-3077), by undersigned counsel for Mr. Brown, hereby respectfully move with the consent of counsel for Appellee, the United States to modify the Briefing Schedule entered by the Court on May 29, 2024, to extend the time for filing the Appellant's Opening Brief and Appendix to October 28, 2024, with a corresponding extension for the Appellee's Response and Appellants' Reply Brief.

- 1. This case involves an appeal of a 4-defendant, multi-count trial that lasted more than one month from jury selection to verdict. The appellants were all sentenced to terms of imprisonment of life without parole.
- 2. The evidence at trial included several forensic experts as well as multiple fact witnesses.
  - 3. There are multiple complex issues that need to be raised on appeal.
- 4. Although the Scheduling Order was entered based on a joint proposal, it has now become evident to appellants' counsel that additional time will be necessary due to the complexity of the issues and potential new issues that may be raised.
- 5. In addition, the press of other cases being handled by counsel, as well as vacation schedules have caused counsel to conclude that additional time is required to complete the work necessary to file the opening brief. In particular, several of the Appellants' counsel have petitions for certiorari and motions for rehearing en banc due in other cases during this time, which were not previously anticipated. As well, undersigned counsel is preparing for a multi-defendant jury trial that had previously appeared likely to be resolved without trial, with defendants who are detained pretrial so that a continuance is not possible. Some of the other appellate counsel are in similar situation with respect to their caseloads.<sup>1</sup>

- 6. The appellants in the instant case are all serving sentences of life without parole so that the additional short extension requested herein will not prejudice the parties.
- 7. Counsel for Appellee, Scott A.C. Meisler, Department of Justice, Criminal Division, Appellate Section consents to this request.
- 8. Counsel for the other Appellants have authorized undersigned counsel to file the instant motion on their behalf.
- 9. For these reasons, despite due diligence, appellants' counsel respectfully request additional time to complete the necessary work to research and file the Opening Brief and Appendix in the instant case.

WHEREFORE, Appellants, through undersigned counsel who is authorized to file on behalf of all appellants' counsel, respectfully request an extension to October 28, 2024 to file the Opening Brief and Appendix, with a corresponding extension of the dates for the filing of the Government's Response and the Appellants' Reply.

Respectfully submitted,
